

Creativity and Compassion

Place: Akron Art Museum, One South High Street, Akron, OH 44308

Time: 9:00 a.m.-12:00 noon

Chairperson: Gina Thomas McGee

AGENDA

Can visiting the art museum make you a more compassionate person? This professional development session explores the value of nurturing emotional intelligence in students and how the field trip experience helps to foster these soft skills in developing young minds. Learn how to incorporate these strategies in the classroom to benefit your students and yourself. Participants will also be invited to explore the galleries on their own, stopping at activity stations geared to a variety of grade levels and subject areas. This program includes hands-on experiences and complimentary admission to the museum's galleries.
