NEA Higher Education Conference

NEA Higher Education Conference Scholarship offered by the North Eastern Ohio Education Association

The NEA Higher Education Conference will be February 19-21, 2027, at The Grand Hyatt in Seattle, Washington.

The NEA Higher Education Conference unites faculty, staff, and graduate student leaders to build union power in support of the organization's mission. Through networking and idea-sharing, attendees learn from one another to strengthen higher education unions across the country.

NEOEA has five scholarships available up to $1,200 each for NEOEA members to attend the conference.

To be eligible for this scholarship, applicants employed in a higher ed local must apply to NEOEA by Monday, December 7, using the form. After attending the conference, recipients must submit a written report to the NEOEA Board of Directors by Friday, April 2, 2027, sharing their experiences at the national conference.

Winners are responsible for making their own registration, room, and travel arrangements.

Members of the NEOEA/OEA Board of Directors are ineligible for this scholarship. Previous scholarship recipients will be considered only after new applicants.
