

So, what's the latest about student loans and loan forgiveness?

Many borrowers have been in forbearance since July 2024, but interest is now accruing. Income driven repayment options are changing as a result of the budget reconciliation. And with cuts to the US Dep't of Ed, there's a lot of chaos and confusion. But NEA Member Benefits can help!

NEA Member Benefits is hosting TEN virtual workshops to help you understand eligibility and qualifications for loan forgiveness, policy and program changes impacting student loan borrowers and highlight the NEA Student Debt Navigator, a powerful tool that can help you manage your options. Each workshop will last 1 hour, 15 minutes.
